ROTARY INTERNATIONAL
THEME 2005 - 2006

Message from the District Governor

My Fellow Rotarians:

"THE YOUTH IS THE HOPE OF THE FATHERLAND!" or "THE FUTURE OF OUR NATION IS OUR YOUTH!" How many times have we heard statements like these? Many great men, including our very own National Hero, Jose Rizal, said something like that. Are these statements still relevant today or are they now merely motherhood statements? I don't think so. I'm quite sure that you don't think so also. Certainly, Rotary International does not think so, because Rotary's concern for children and the youth is simply tremendous. Four full blown committees of Rotary International, are focused on youth development and leadership. Rotaract, Interact, RYLA, and Rotary Youth Exchange, are all geared towards the advancement, growth, welfare and care for the youth. Even Rotary's great worldwide campaign to eradicate polio, is a tribute to its concern for the youth because this deadly disease preys on them.

Two of the more pro-active committees of Rotary International, are the Rotaract and Interact committees and it is through them that many of our young people first encounter Rotary. Organizing Rotaract and Interact clubs are not only major activities but also mandated responsibilities of all Rotary clubs. In our district, the ratio of Rotaract and Interact clubs against the number of Rotary clubs, is way below the desirable level. I am very glad to note that many clubs are now doing something to address this deficiency. In the course of my club visits thus far, twelve new Rotaract clubs and six Interact clubs have already been organized and are now either registered or in the process of being registered with Rotary International. Many more are being formed. These are very welcome developments for our district. It is my dream that before this Rotary Year is over, all the 54 clubs in our district will have at least one Rotaract and one Interact club. This will surely perpetuate Rotary's existence because future Rotarians will come from these clubs. More importantly, giving our young people the opportunity to learn more about Rotary through these organizations, is an excellent way of setting them up towards the right direction to a meaningful existence early in their lives.

On October 20, this year, Rotary International President Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar, will come to visit our country. Although he is coming here for the Manila Zone Institute, the highlight of his visit will be his address and dialogue with our youngsters in a Youth Forum made up of Rotaractors and Interactors from all over our ten Rotary Districts. His coming is certainly very timely, considering that the young people of our country, need more guidance and inspiration during these very trying times.

As we celebrate the New Generations month this September, let us endeavor to introduce Rotaract, Interact and Rotary's ideals to our nation's real treasure – our youth.

President's Message

Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar
2005-06 Rotary
International President

Dear fellow Rotarians,

September is New Generations Month. We could just as well call September "the month of our future" because investing in our youth is our future. We can take pride in the fact that we have youth programs for just about every age group with Rotarians serving as active, caring sponsors.

One of our first contacts with youth begins with Interact, a program for students ages 14-18. Interact clubs can be based in the community or in schools. The school does not "take over" entirely, but works closely with the sponsoring Rotary club to implement meetings and projects. Interact clubs support many of the same causes that Rotary clubs do. For example, Interactors have helped raise funds for tsunami victims, organize outings for poor children, and renovate homes in developing countries.

Interact serves as a natural lead-in to Rotaract, a service club for students ages 18-30. Like Interact, Rotaractors can meet either at a community establishment or at a school, usually a college or university. Rotaract clubs are able to take on more ambitious projects and work more independently. In addition to their service agenda, Rotaract clubs also focus on professional development, public speaking, and career development. One concern is that there can be a "drop off" point after members turn 30. If a club has primarily older members, the sponsor Rotary club should encourage the invitation of younger members to maintain the club's vitality and flow. Rotaractors are a connecting bridge to Rotary because they understand Rotary values and often help participate in joint projects.

While Interact and Rotaract help to develop leadership skills, there is another program devoted exclusively to this purpose: Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (better known as RYLA). This training seminar is the third flower in our bouquet of youth programs. RYLA usually operates as a camp and is sponsored by multiple districts. This allows Rotarians and young people from all over the region to meet and exchange ideas. Rotarians run the seminars and incorporate recreational and cultural activities.

Perhaps the most popular program of all is Youth Exchange, which allows students ages 15-19 to experience another way of life by living abroad with a host family. He or she is often immersed in a new language, new religion, new political system, new currency, and new traditions. But most important, he or she will find friends in the host country and create a friendship that will last forever. Youth Exchange students will learn to resolve differences peaceably, not through war. You could not build a better foundation for understanding and peace, because it begins at someone's home.

Interact, Rotaract, Youth Exchange, and RYLA all build upon the goals of personal growth and leadership of youth by youth. In short, these programs build character. They also represent a wonderful source of future Rotarians, already acquainted with the ideals of Rotary International.

The old Rotary slogan "Every Rotarian an Example to Youth" is as relevant today as it was more than a half-century ago. Rotarians can help young people reach their full potential. We can instill our motto of Service Above Self at a young age – and let it continue to guide Rotary through the next century.

Life After the Club Presidency

by PDG Manuel P. Tatel

Nearly 26 years ago, I came to join Rotary to begin a career with the goal to serve others. It was a wise decision. The years since then have been professionally rewarding and enjoyable. I have come to know Rotarians of different shapes and colors. They are able, honest and dedicated a group as can be found. They have made me immensely proud to be part of Rotary, especially so, after my club presidency in 1986. It has been my special privilege to serve Rotary at its best, and even at the age of 68 this year, I still consider Rotary as my second home. And one fact stands out from this personal experience - the old and the young can complement each other - working together, it creates a formidable deterrent to self-destruction and an implacable foe to boredom and decay.

But before pursuing to discuss this important issue, we have to agree once and for all, the basic assumption that life After the Club Presidency' depends much on human behavior in the organization, which is the most difficult to discuss. Perhaps, what is equally needed, is to have baseline data upon which an analysis can be made without taking offense of the personal idiosyncrasies; motives and decision of any past president.

When I reflect on the subject, I said to myself that this is not pleasant to talk about, for it melts my heart and I am not too happy to answer it positively for a solution. It is utterly disgusting reading an article articulating on my personal experiences on how I see most of my fellow past presidents in a tight fix or simply indifferent I submit once again that this observation will focus on my personal contact and involvement with the environment - a day to day interpersonal experiences with my fellow Rotarians in the district or even beyond the other nine districts in the country — aside from the informal surveys so conducted on the matter.

This is not to say however that the person having a difficult life maybe praying for past sins nor the ones having a life of ease be reaping a reward. Each person has created his life.

Frustrations and despair grow out of the absence of someone who really appreciate how we feel; what we are really like. It is perfectly matured that as Rotarians, we should desire to be better our condition easier but, merely to desire to be relieved of responsibility and pressure is not enough. By the very nature of life essence that causes man to be, we have within us a creative ability that challenges us to the fullest extent possible, the mental and physical abilities that were given us to cope with the problems of living.

But then, as Rotarians, you will ask this question: What have I received from Rotary? The answers should come so easily.

There is no contradicting how Rotary club membership has enriched our lives with fellowship; opportunities for service and the satisfaction that we have shared at helping those who are in need. The way to Rotary's future is to make a real Rotarian out of each club member. And a real Rotarian knows Rotary, loves Rotary, shares Rotary and lives Rotary through service. And the search for an individual joy; satisfaction and happiness is a universal goal. And it is painful to remember that oftentimes Rotary seemed to fail this great stride of brilliant and dedicated men and women in this great organization.

It is of common knowledge that a number of us past presidents have proven ourselves unworthy of the trust of the title of "PP". It is not unusual for names of past presidents to be bandied about in connection with an equally unworthy character. It is truly saddening, even distressing, particularly for one who was also at one time a district governor to note of its seemingly rapid deterioration. For many of us, an honest hard look in the mirror should disclose our many failings and weaknesses.

Let us not lose sight of the fact, however, that there are past presidents who are still self-less; dedicated; active and committed, who work with their heads, hearts and hands in the anonymity of our vast environment.

One question can be asked: "Do the past presidents believe (in what they are doing) because, if they don't, they won't really commit their energy; their creativity and their talents to excel in the world of service

Let us not succumb to impatience, discouragement or lack of trust. How many times in our Rotary lives have we found waiting like that? Waiting for things to change? Waiting for something to happen? Waiting in eager anticipation of what your dub is going to do next? Or it is a boring experience where we ended the Rotary year to be over?

Rotary International has great purpose for each of

DISTRICT SECRETARY'S CORNER

The month of August in the Rotary calendar is the Membership and Extension Month. This is the time of the month where clubs are encouraged to invite new members to the club or to form a new club.

Based on the monthly attendance report submitted by the clubs, RI District 3850 has a net gain of three (3) members from among the 49 clubs that submitted their MAR for the month of August. We are still 50 new members short of our goal of 53 new members or one new member per club, as expected by our District Governor Ricardo "Eric" Laviña, Jr. We still have nine months to meet our target or even surpass it.

It is always good to have new members in the club- they bring in new ideas, infuse enthusiasm and add resources to the club. New members help the clubs grow. However, let us not forget that we also need to retain our existing members. Membership retention is one of the more challenging goals the club has to meet. It is not easy to maintain the interest of the members to be dedicated and committed especially when our club has unhealthy symptoms. What are these unhealthy symptoms? Here is an article shared by PP Jesse Tanchanco of RC Loyola Heights in the rc_phils egroup that defines this:

IS OUR CLUB HEALTHY?

Let's all guard against the following unhealthy symptoms: malnutrition due to lack of Rotary information, inspiration, and leadership; general debility due to lack of service projects; aging through loss of membership growth and vision; and disease from carelessness in classification, apathy towards attendance, and self above service. Winnipeg Rotary Whizz

So does your club have any of the unhealthy symptoms? If so, how do you intend to address this? It is not the sole responsibility of the club president or the club secretary or club service director or any of the officers to address all the unhealthy symptoms but the responsibility of the entire membership. The officers though should take the lead, plan out the path for everyone to follow. That's a lot of challenge I know. It is not easy to lead a group of professionals who joined Rotary to volunteer their service. There are many ways to get people involved. Does our membership enjoy fellowship? Do you have activities that will foster fellowship? Do you have projects that will give a sense of pride and unity among your members? Do you care if a member absents himself/herself from a meeting? Do you make your meetings interesting? Are your officers aware of their responsibilities? Does your board meet regularly? These are just some questions you can ask to assess whether your club is healthy or not.

Fellow Rotarians, our club cannot serve well if it is unhealthy. Let us all work together to help make our club robust and healthy enough so it can serve the community. Remember, we are in Rotary because we want to serve.

Lastly, I want to remind all the assistant governors, club presidents and secretaries that the deadline for the submission of monthly attendance report and club activity report you want published at the GML is on the 7th of the following month. The publication of the GML is dependent on the timeliness of submission of these reports. You can send this report through my email address at mjune_b@yahoo.com or maryjune.b@gmail.com or through fax # (062) 9927337.

Also, please take some time to check out the district website: at www.rotary3850.org. Our GML and other District Activities and Updates will be made available through the site.

The District Gov. Ricardo "Eric" Laviña, Jr. and his lady Georgie Laviña visited Ozamiz for a Club Assembly last July 29, 2005.

Governor Eric was glad during his visit because it was very timely that they meet with the City Mayor of Ozamiz, Hon. Reynaldo "Aldong" Ozamiz Parojinog, Sr. not knowing that Gov. Eric and the late father of the mayor had friendly acquaintances before when the later was still residing in Zamboanga City.

The courtesy visit of Gov. Eric to the office of the City Mayor together with the Rotarians from the Rotary Club of Ozamiz was highlighted with a warm and cordial conversation.
