

GOVERNOR'S MONTHLY LETTER

DISTRICT 3850, PHILIPPINES

No. 05 NOVEMBER 2006

So much of what Rotary is known for depends on the Foundation.

Lead the Way — William B. Boyd, President

From the Editor

N ovember is Rotary Foundation Month. It is a time to give emphasis to the very reason why Rotary has been successful in its humanitarian programs. As in all undertakings, the problem of funds and logistics is often the most difficult to hurdle. As such, it was a Solomonic move to create a parallel organization that would take care of the funding requirements of Rotary projects. The Rotary Foundation is the foundation of Rotary.

But clubs should examine their roster of members vis a vis the contributions that these Rotarians have made to the Foundation. One will be surprised at the number Rotarians, who have been such for several years, who have not given a single contribution to the Rotary Foundation. This situation is not only the member's failing, it is also the club's omission. Support to the Foundation is as much the responsibility of the club as it is the obligation of every Rotarian.

Clubs in District 3850 have shown admirable creativity in raising funds for the Foundation and, definitely, there has been a snowballing of support for The Rotary Foundation as shown by the increase in net contributions registered by the clubs these past years.

And this is as it should be. Clubs and their communities can readily benefit from the support that they provide the Foundation.

And that is the whole point of the exercise. The Foundation was established to help the clubs with their community and other projects. It is not just a "one way street", as it were. While our District has been campaigning hard for Rotary Foundation contributions, it has also been very aggressive in giving us training on how to avail of grants and youth exchange programs so that the purpose of the Foundation can be served. To this end, we should also be aware of how to harness the vast resources of the The Rotary Foundation so that the communities that we wish to serve can be reached by the its benevolence.

The Foundation needs our help and, at the same time, we also need the help of the Foundation.

So much of what Rotary is known for — international service projects, grants, scholarships and, above all, Polio-Plus — depends on the Foundation.

Dear fellow Rotarians,

It's almost impossible to imagine Rotary today without The Rotary Foundation. So much of what Rotary is known for — international service projects, grants, scholarships and, above all, PolioPlus — depends on the Foundation. Without the Foundation, Rotary could never have grown into a truly international organization. A Rotary without Matching Grants, without Ambassadorial Scholars, and without the unifying fight for polio eradication would be a Rotary without many of the most important ties linking our clubs and districts.

The Rotary Foundation was not founded by coincidence. Because Rotary is an organization of businesspeople and professionals, we tend to be a very practical group. There are very few starry-eyed idealists in Rotary, and although we may follow our hearts, we lead with our heads. As Rotarians, we assess needs, consider our resources, and constantly try to do the most with what we have. Arch C. Klumph, the Foundation's founder, realized that a central pool of resources could increase the power of each Rotary club.

The Rotary Foundation is a major reason Rotarians are able to accomplish so much. But the Foundation's financial support is only part of the equation. The talents and reach of our membership mean that a dollar or a euro or a yen given to the Foundation can do much more than anyone might expect. When projects are run by knowledgeable volunteers, using volunteer labor and, often, donated materials, a relatively small grant can make a big difference.

🔯 LEAD THE WAY

The classic example, of course, is PolioPlus. The cost of a dose of oral polio vaccine is small, but the logistics of delivering it are daunting. Yet when hundreds or thousands of Rotarians come together to deliver vaccines during a National Immunization Day, the greatest hurdle has already been overcome, and the Foundation is there to help with the rest. Great works like these could not happen without Rotarians, and they could not happen without the Foundation.

Rotarians know the value of a good investment. That is why every year, Rotarians give to the Foundation. We know that our money will be used well and wisely by our fellow Rotarians and that together we can do so much more than we could ever do alone. That is why I ask all of you to Lead the Way in your clubs with a gift to the Foundation — this year and every year.

Governor's Message

ast November 5 to 11, 2006, I had a grand time with the Zamboanga clubs during my visit. It was pleasant as it was heartwarming to see an unqualified show of support for the District programs. It was more exhilarating to experience the warmth and sincere display of hospitality the Rotarians from Zamboanga have provided for me. And it gives me greater fulfillment to see that, in this month of November, the Zones 10 and 11 clubs are celebrating The Rotary Foundation Month by pledging $25,000.00 to the Rotary Foundation.

These clubs have Led the Way in a dynamic and impressive fashion. From their projects to their fellowship, I say with great admiration that Rotary is thriving well in Western Mindanao. And one could not find a better group of happy and dedicated people to help the District Lead the Way to better service.

To the clubs of Zones 10 and 11, thank you for your support and hospitality. Thank you for those welcoming newspaper spreads, meaningful projects and great camaraderie and fellowship.

Given the support the clubs have shown to The Rotary Foundation, I feel confident that we can reach or even surpass our goal. The response to the call for greater TRF contributions has been very encouraging. And that is because we have realized the importance of The Rotary Foundation in the effective dispensation of service projects worldwide.

For our part, here in the District, we have begun to experience the outreach of The Rotary Foundation through the Group Study Exchange, Matching Grants and Polio Plus. Our efforts for more grants are beginning to materialize and much needed funds for our projects will soon be available through the matching grants. This would not have been possible without The Rotary Foundation. But I believe, we can still do much for our community. As each club begins to experience the benevolent mission of The Rotary Foundation through the implementation of matching grants, more and more Rotarians will appreciate the wonderful partnership and international cooperation The Rotary Foundation engenders. We all should be proud to be part of this crusade.

Monthly Attendance Report OCTOBER 2006

Membership MOMENTS

PDG Dave Villanueva RC Bacolod South RRIMC

An untapped source of members: program alumni

Every year, Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation invest significant amounts of time and money in their programs. In 2004-05, Rotary clubs and districts provided leadership training for more than 20,000 young people through Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA), supported about 410,000 service-minded youth in Interact and Rotaract clubs, and provided study-abroad opportunities for more than 10,000 students and young professionals through Rotary Youth Exchange, Ambassadorial Scholarships, and Group Study Exchange (GSE).

These programs not only attract the best and brightest young people but also produce individuals committed to leadership, service, and international understanding. Often, the people who participate in these programs become contributing members of their communities and share the values they learned in Rotary with the rest of the world.

Because of their dedication to Rotary's values, these program alumni could make great Rotarians. They are already more familiar with Rotary than the average prospective club member, and their participation in Rotary's programs indicates that they are interested in the organization's objectives. Why not capitalize on their experience with Rotary and get a return on the investment by keeping them involved in Rotary as club members?

The current status of alumni in Rotary

According to research conducted in 2005-06 by the Membership Development Division of Rotary International, only 2.9% of current Rotarians are program alumni. Additionally

- * 58% of clubs say they don't recruit program alumni for membership.
- * 22% of clubs claim to recruit alumni and actually have alumni as members.
- * 84% of current program participants are interested in joining a Rotary club.
- * 66% of program alumni are interested in joining a Rotary club.

So, why aren't more alumni joining Rotary clubs?

RI's research found that as more years pass after alumni leave a program, fewer and fewer of those alumni remain interested in joining a Rotary club. This decline in interest over time could stem from a significant decline in contact with Rotary, which was shown to occur once participants finished with their program. Alumni who had more frequent contact with Rotary after their program generally were more interested in joining a club than were alumni who had less frequent contact.

The top five reasons alumni identified for being interested in joining Rotary are:

- 1. Performing community service
- 2. Meeting a variety of people

- 3. Making a difference/Creating a better world
- 4. Helping others have the same experience
- 5. Being involved in a good organization

The top five reasons alumni identified for not being interested in joining Rotary are:

- 1. Too many other commitments/not enough time for Rotary
- 2. Cannot attend a weekly meeting
- 3. Membership is too expensive
- 4. Age difference between themselves and current members
- 5. Clubs are all or mostly men

Another issue is that many alumni simply aren't asked to join. Of those who are interested in joining and currently hold a professional, proprietary, executive, or managerial position

- * 58% of GSE alumni have not been pursued for membership.
- * 67% of Rotaract alumni have not been pursued for membership.
- * 82% of scholarship alumni have not been pursued for membership.

Strategies for clubs and districts

Considering the large number of new alumni each year, Rotary has tremendous growth potential, especially if these alumni were more effectively transitioned into Rotary clubs. Clubs and districts can implement many strategies to tap into alumni as a source of potential members:

- * Build strong relationships with current program participants. It's important to instill a "connection for life" with Rotary among program participants. The stronger connection participants have with Rotary while they're in their program, the better their experience will be and the more likely they will be to maintain contact with Rotary over time.
- * Develop an action plan for keeping alumni involved in Rotary activities and for transitioning them into Rotary clubs. This could include appointing an alumni subcommittee to manage tasks like tracking and maintaining contact with alumni.
- * Promote alumni so other Rotarians understand their importance. No matter how great alumni are, if other Rotarians don't see them as potential members, they won't treat them as potential members. Rotary clubs should recognize alumni as part of the family of Rotary, which could include featuring them in club and district newsletters, inviting them to speak at club events, or bringing compelling alumni stories to the local media.
- * Ask alumni to join and continue asking even if an initial invitation is declined.

Many alumni are waiting for clubs to contact them, but many clubs are waiting for alumni to contact them. Because membership in Rotary is by invitation only, however, clubs must take the initiative. And if alumni decline an invitation, clubs should still keep in contact with them and find other ways they can be involved. As time passes, clubs should be persistent and keep asking. Alumni may change their mind as life circumstances change.

- * Help alumni find clubs that meet their needs. Sometimes alumni decline invitations to join because a club doesn't meet their specific needs. The alumni may need a club that meets at a different time or place. They may want to join a club that better matches their own demographics. Perhaps they want a club with a different meeting format or different projects. When alumni find a club that meets their needs, other reasons for not wanting to join, such as being too busy, quickly dissipate.
- * Use alumni to start new clubs. If alumni are having difficulty finding a club that meets their needs, clubs and districts could start new clubs. New all-alumni clubs have already been founded all over the world, including Germany, Italy, Japan, the Philippines, and the United States.
- * Maintain contact with younger alumni until they're qualified for membership. Not all alumni are qualified for membership as soon as they leave their programs. Don't lose touch with younger alumni just because they're not yet qualified for membership, however. The more contact alumni have with Rotary over time, the more they can sustain their enthusiasm and interest in joining a club.
- * Involve alumni in other programs. Clubs and districts can help maintain interest among alumni by getting them involved in other Rotary programs. For example, former Youth Exchange students can get involved in Interact and Rotaract clubs, former Interactors can participate in RYLA, and former Rotaractors can be part of GSE teams. By getting involved in other programs, alumni can better bridge the gap that occurs after they finish their initial program and before they become qualified for Rotary club membership.
- * Involve alumni in club and district activities. Many of the alumni who aren't yet ready to join a Rotary club still want to be involved in Rotary activities. Consider involving alumni in service projects, creating alumni events at the district conference, or including alumni on the selection or orientation committees for their program.

ROTARY FOUNDATION SUSTAINING MEMBER Winners

Out of the proceeds of this fund raising project, a total amount of P300,000.00 was allocated and raffled to clubs with 60 prizes of $100 (PhP 5,000) for contribution as Rotary Foundation Sustaining Members (RFSM). For each lot that a club has sold, one raffle ticket was assigned. There were 120 raffle tickets in all, and 60 winners were drawn.

For the grand prizes, checks will be issued to the individual winners.

For all the consolation cash prizes, the district will issue to each club (with winners), the total amount of the individual prizes. The clubs, in turn, shall pay the cash prizes to the individual winners.

For the winners of the Rotary Foundation Sustaining Member prizes, the following guidelines have been set by the district.

- 1. No cash will be given to the clubs. The district will remit to TRF the money upon the clubs' submission of names of recipients.
- 2. Clubs are encouraged to raffle off to their members the RFSM prizes.

A club could assign one raffle ticket for each stub sold by members. Therefore, the more stubs a member has sold, the bigger his or her chances will be.

The complete name, ID#, address and telephone #s of the winners (RFSM recipients) should be reported to the district. Upon receipt of payment by R.I., the official receipts will then be mailed to them.
